

Policy on the Use of Class A Dogs for Research and Teaching

The Institutional Animal and Care Use Committee (IACUC) has approved the use of purchased dogs (Class A dogs) only when they are obtained from a Class A dealer for research and teaching studies. Animals purchased from a Class B dealer (Class B dogs) may only be used on an individual basis when specifically scientifically justified in the research/teaching protocol and then approved by an IACUC full committee review.